Conduct of Meeting:	Despite challenging conditions, an incredible 53 races were conducted throughout the afternoon. Athletes from every level — Little Athletics, Para Athletes, Juniors and Seniors — showed remarkable determination, teamwork, and spirit to get through tough conditions! Their cooperation and support during a cold/wet day helped officials make the meeting a real success. Worth mentioning, it was great to receive fantastic feedback by so many Rotary Mt Barker members about what a professional job the race caller is doing! Huge thanks to Terry McAuliffe, delivers every week and makes a huge difference! Our sincere thanks to Rotary Mount Barker for their invaluable assistance and sponsorship, which played a vital role in the day's success. A special mention also goes to Deputy Mayor Samantha Jones and Councillor Bradley Orr for their presence and encouragement, adding to the great sense of community pride. Finally, November is shaping up to be a huge month of racing, with exciting schedules packed with plenty of races, looking forward to seeing everyone out there, racing hard and most of all, having fun will competing at your best!
